Overview

Is Argentina a good country for solar energy?

There is a measure of agreement that Argentina's solar resource is ideal for photovoltaic (PV) and solar thermal (ST) development, both for large- and small-scale (distributed) installations. The yearly Renewable Energy Country Attractiveness Index published by Ernst and Young places Argentina in the 18th position for PV .

Does Argentina have a potential for solar energy utilization?

Conclusions Our work found a large gap between Argentina's potential for solar energy utilization and the current solar energy deployment, despite advantages such as a high solar and land resources.

When did solar thermal energy become a key energy source in Argentina?

Solar thermal energy in Argentina was already considered a potential key energy source in 1975 , when a national R&D program for the development of solar energy and other renewables was launched, leading to numerous research programs (see next section) and the elaboration of norms and certification criteria for ST collectors .

What are the top solar companies in Argentina?

Notable brands include Huawei at 40%, SMA at 13%, and Schneider at 10%, showcasing the diverse array of technologies powering Argentina's solar energy revolution. In terms of total installed renewable capacity, Argentina boasts 16,782 MW, with large hydroelectric plants dominating at 64.5%.

Is there a gap between solar and solar energy deployment in Argentina?

Author to whom correspondence should be addressed. There is a large gap between the vast solar resources and the magnitude of solar energy deployment in Argentina. In the case of photovoltaics, the country only reached the 1000 GWh electricity generated yearly landmark in 2020.

Can Argentina become a regional leader in wind energy?

Argentina has the foundation to become a regional leader in the use of this technology. Source: Undersecretariat of Renewable Energy, Ministry of Energy and Mining, Government of Argentina According to Wind Energy Market Intelligence, Argentina had 22 operational wind farms spread across the country by September 2016.
