Overview

Will Hevel group expand its portfolio in Kazakhstan?

We are seeking to further expansion of our portfolio in Kazakhstan, said Hevel Group's CEO Igor Shakhray. Construction of PV plants is scheduled to complete by 2020, connected solar parks will feed United power system of Kazakhstan.

When will a solar plant be built in Kazakhstan?

Construction of PV plants is scheduled to complete by 2020, connected solar parks will feed United power system of Kazakhstan. This year Hevel is going to start construction works at 50 MW and 20 MW solar projects in south regions of Kazakhstan. The company was awarded both PV plants at the bidding round in 2018.

Is Kazakhstan a good place to invest in solar power?

Kazakhstan has remarkable solar potential with a very well-designed auction system, a clear renewable capacity addition schedule, and a solid decarbonisation target. The country is now also including storage systems as part of its public procurement strategy in a move that will ease further integration of renewables into the grid.

Can solar power drive Kazakhstan's Energy Transition?

However, Kazakhstan's solar ambitions do not fully tap into its potential, and the technology could play a far larger role in the country's energy transition due to its low cost and flexibility. The focus now is on leveraging solar's comparative advantages to drive forward Kazakhstan's decarbonisation and harness its significant solar resources.

Which project will boost Kazakhstan's oil production in 2024-25?

Tengiz: Future Growth Project is main source of Kazakhstan's incremental oil production during 2024-25. Kashagan: Phase 2 development is likely to lift project output through 2030s, cushioning overall national production decline trajectory.

Should Kazakhstan adopt an energy security strategy?

Global trend of tightening carbon regulation presents yet another impetus for broader modernization and systemic reforms of energy sector in Kazakhstan. Kazakhstan should articulate and adopt an official Energy Security Strategy document, guided by these general observations.
